

ABOUT OUR SCHOOL

Sironga Girls High School is a school with a rich cultural tradition blended into the academic and co-curricular activities located in Nyamira County.

Sironga girls boast of the solid Christian foundation planted by the Seventh Day Adventist since her inception in 1968.

The school started primarily to offer education to both girls and boys but the school was later changed to a girl's boarding school.

Since then the school has become a great school in the whole country posting an impressive performance index in 2014 K.C.S.E with a mean score of 9.01.
